This editorial features articles from the first issue of the ninth volume of the Brazilian Journal of Planning and Development – Revista Brasileira de Planejamento e Desenvolvimento (RBPD). This issue has contributed to the planning and development, as in previous and usual numbers of this journal, by teachers from Brazil.

This issue brought articles that address the theme of renewable energy, social responsibility, public policies, rural land prices, national solid waste policy, as well as municipal taxes.

We thank you for the contribution of all the authors and reviewers of our journal. Presented the articles of this issue, we wish a great and useful reading to all!
